

HCL AI Employee Assistant - Travel Policy

Version: 2026.1

Department: Finance & Administration

1. Business Travel

Business travel must be approved by the reporting manager before any booking is made. Employees should choose the most economical travel option that meets business requirements.

2. Flight Policy

Domestic travel should normally be booked in Economy Class. Business Class requires approval from the Department Head. Tickets should be booked through the company's authorized travel portal.

3. Hotel Accommodation

Employees may book hotels within the approved budget limit. Standard rooms should be preferred unless business requirements justify an upgrade.

4. Local Transportation

Employees may use company-approved taxi services or public transport. Ride receipts must be submitted for reimbursement. Personal vehicle expenses are reimbursed only when prior approval has been obtained.

5. Travel Reimbursement

Travel reimbursement requests must be submitted within 7 days after completing the trip. Employees should upload all bills, invoices, and receipts through the expense portal. Incomplete claims may be rejected.

6. Meal Allowance

Employees on official business travel are eligible for a daily meal allowance as per company reimbursement limits. Alcoholic beverages are not reimbursable.

7. International Travel

International travel requires approval from the Business Unit Head. Employees must ensure valid passports, visas, and travel insurance before departure.

8. Important Notes

Personal travel expenses, sightseeing, shopping, and entertainment costs are not reimbursable. Any exception to this policy requires written approval from the Finance Department.
